

Nine JBS Engineers Win the Microsoft Top Partner Engineer Award, Held for the First Time by Microsoft Japan
Greatest Number of Awards Won Among All Partners

Japan Business Systems, Inc. (Headquarters: Minato Ward, Tokyo; President: Yukihiro Makita; hereinafter, “JBS, securities code: 5036”) is proud to announce that nine JBS engineers won the Microsoft Top Partner Engineer Award, held for the first time by Microsoft Japan Company, Limited (hereinafter, “Microsoft Japan”) to recognize the achievements of engineers at partner companies.

This award is presented to engineers who have made great contributions, implemented cutting-edge technologies, or made valuable efforts to spread Microsoft technologies throughout partner companies. JBS was awarded in all four categories of Azure, Business Applications, Modern Work, and Security, with the greatest number of award-winners among all partners.

We have received the following words of congratulations from Microsoft Japan regarding these awards.

Thank you for your continued partnership with Microsoft Japan. In recognition of the nine engineers' work at JBS, we are awarding them the Microsoft Top Partner Engineer Award.

The Microsoft Top Partner Engineer Award, presented to engineers who have widely contributed to business and worked to disseminate Microsoft technologies, is an extremely important initiative for Microsoft Japan. We hope that this award serves as an endorsement of their extensive knowledge and experience and helps to support your business. Going forward, Microsoft Japan intends to realize customers' digital transformation in cooperation with JBS and your nine award-winning engineers.
